DELAYED INFORMATION.

John Bobbit, of Winfield, Kan., writes as follows to Father McIntire, of the Arkansas City Democrat. It is a bit of humor which all Kansas Democrats will appreciate:

DEAR SIR AND FRIEND:—I a mail broke up on politics. The Democratic convention at Topeka indorsed the People's party ticket from top to bottom and, after due consideration, I concluded that it was all right, and that it was the proper thing to do. But after I had hung out my flag for Lewelling and the other fellows evidence began to accumulate from Republican sources that the Democratic party had always been a party of principles; that it had been a brave, courageous, patriotic party; and some Republican papers go so far as to intimate that the Democratic party was loyal, and that individual Democrats drank very little whiskey, and never did steal a horse. No, never! That we were good readers, and don't stick out our tongues when we write. Now then, can you wonder, that when I find all these virtues ascribed to the Democratic party by the Republicans of Kansas, whose veracity we (never) doubted, I am disconsolate for having even temporarily abandoned such a party, for the purpose of defeating the Republican party, and several of my Republican friends have assured me that they felt just as bad about it as I did. However, if the Republicans are defeated, they will have no one to blame but themselves. They should have imparted this information to us sooner. They have always contended that we didn't have any principle, that we were dirty, whiskey Democrats; rebel Democrats; that all Democrats were not horse thieves, but all horse thieves were Democrats, and we thought they meant it. But they say they did not mean it at all, that they always knew we were a grand, glorious, patriotic, courageous, loyal party, and had principles.

On the first page of this issue is a cut of the great Stanberry, Mo., Normal Business and Shorthand College, and Schools of Music, Art, Elocution and Telegraphy. This is the school for farmers' sons and daughters. In the last two years it has enrolled students from twenty-seven states and territories, from Canada and from Wales. It is now closing its eleventh and most prosperous year. The prospects for next year, opening August 30, are even better. Students get good board and tuition for only $2.75 per week. They may enter any time and select their own studies, receive private help free, etc., etc. The school is only forty miles from St. Joseph, and many Kansas students attend it yearly. Nearly every member of the faculty was reared on a farm. It has large and fine buildings, a strong faculty of thirty specialists, and there are no saloons in the county. Satisfaction is guaranteed, and car fare is paid both ways if the president does not do just as he says. Send for a large, free catalogue to John E. Fesler, president, Stanberry, Mo.

Pythian Sisters' Headquarters.

During the Knights of Pythias encampment in Kansas City next month a spacious room of 15,000 square feet floorage in Bullene, Moore, Emery & Co.'s mammoth store will be official headquarters for the Pythian sisters.

BLOSSOM HOUSE.

Opposite Union Depot, Kansas City, Mo. The Blossom House is convenient to all parts of the city. Cable cars run in every direction. It is just across the street from the union depot, just the place to meet your friends. Members of the Alliance make the Blossom House their headquarters when in the city, and their general place of meeting when attending conventions abroad.

Marshall County Ratification.

The People's party central committee of Marshall county has decided to open the campaign by a two days' ratification grove meeting on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 9 and 10. Entertainment for all will be provided, and a grand time is anticipated. The grove is three miles east from the center of the county, and about equally distant from the railroad stations of Frankfort, Beattie and Home.

JAMES SHEARER, Jr., Secretary.

To Pennsylvanians.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Settlers' Association of the state of Kansas will be held at the capitol, in the city of Topeka, on Wednesday and Thursday, August 24 and 25, 1892, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. of the 24th. A rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip has been secured over all railroads in this state, and from St. Joseph, Mo., and Kansas City, Mo., good from August 22 to 27, when signed by the state secretary after the close of the meeting. It is desirable that Pennsylvanians in the several counties of the state effect county organizations and send such delegations as they may desire, no limit being made as to numbers. A meeting for organizing a society for Shawnee county will be held at the court house in Topeka at 2 o'clock p. m., Saturday, July 30, 1892. Information as to organizing and program can be had by addressing C. P. Bolmar, state secretary, 535 Kansas avenue, Topeka, Kan.

Veterans' Return to Washington.

The Grand Army encampment at Washington in September will be the occasion of the re-union of thousands of veterans who parted in that city in 1865, after the grand review following the surrender at Appomattox and the capitulation of Richmond. Again after a lapse of 27 years, thousands of veterans will march down Pennsylvania avenue to be reviewed again by the president of the United States, members of his cabinet, and other distinguished personages. It will be a spectacle seldom equaled in the magnificence of the display and in the number of men participating. Excursion tickets to Washington via the Baltimore & Ohio railroad will be sold by all the roads in the west at exceedingly low rates. The chief delight of the trip to Washington will be the journey via the picturesque Baltimore & Ohio, which crosses the Alleghany mountains and for 250 miles traverses territory fraught with the most thrilling incidents of the war. For more detailed information as to time of trains, rates and sleeping car accommodations, apply to L. S. Allen, Asst. Gen. Passenger Agent, The Rookery, Chicago. Upon application, Chas. O. Scull, Gen. Passenger Agent, Baltimore, Md., will send free of charge a handsomely illustrated guide to Washington.
